

CCJR Scholarship Requirements

- Cowboy/Cowgirl demonstrates excellence and achievement both inside the arena as well as outside the arena.
 - Consecutive placings in events. (Girl – breakaway, goat tying, barrels, poles, team roping, ribbon roping. Boy – tie down, team roping, chute dogging, ribbon roping, rough stock.)
 - Demonstrates horsemanship
 - Demonstrates sportsmanship
 - Demonstrates leadership
 - Essay of “What the rodeo lifestyle means to you and how it has helped you develop into the person you are?” (1 Page)
 - Years of participation
- $500.00 Scholarship (2 scholarships if funding allows)
- Candidate must have graduated in the 2023 school year and be attending a University, Community College, or Trade School. Scholarship recipient will receive check after showing proof of school registration.
- Recipients can defer scholarship for up to 30 months for military or church service.
- Scholarship application is due September 1, 2023. It can be emailed to ccjrrodeo@gmail.com

Optional Information

- High school academics, FFA awards, Church awards, Leadership awards, etc.

*The receiving candidate of the CCJR scholarship will be evaluated over the course of the CCJR series in which the candidate shows excellence and achievement through various situations inside and outside the arena.

2023 Cow Country Junior Rodeo Series Scholarship Application

Scholarship Applicant Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____ Age: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Number of Years Participated at the Cow Country Junior Rodeo Series: _____

High School Graduate From: _____ Year Graduated: _____

Name of College/Trade School: _____

I, _____, acknowledge that all information submitted on this scholarship application is true and correct.

Scholarship recipient(s) will be named at the final rodeo of the Cow Country Junior Rodeo Series. Scholarship applications are due on or before September 1, 2023.